~ Call for proposals ~

The purpose of the coming conference will be to bring academics, government, business and society leaders into discussion about the development and direction of the Science & Technology agenda of the new Presidential Administration. Our aim with the Dupont Summit 2009 will be to try to assess the general strategy that the New Administration is taking in regard to Science & Technology policy.

The Dupont Summit will include the following themes:

- National Security
- Information & Telecommunications
- Health
- Energy
- Environment & Climate Change
- Biotechnology
- Genetics & Stem Cells
- Water & Natural Resources
- Science Research & Education
- Technology & Innovation
- Space

*Other proposals will be most welcome. For more information, visit the Conference Section of our website via www.ipsonet.org, or you may contact Daniel Gutierrez, our Conference Manager, at dgutierrez@ipsonet.org
